WAR IN THE FAR EAST.

Japanese Repulsed—Russian Communications Cut Off—Alexieff Said to be Bottled Up.

The London Daily Mail's Port Arthur correspondent, under date of February 12, says:

Official advices state that the Japanese landed 600 soldiers near Ta-lien-wan with disastrous results, 410 being sabred by Cossacks. The remainder escaped to their ships. It is further stated that the Japanese landed at Dove Bay, where thirty of them were killed and the remainder retreated.

The Daily Mail's Niu-chwang correspondent, under date of February 11, cables: "According to official Port Arthur telegrams, the Japanese landed a force yesterday at Pigeon Bay, west Port Arthur. They were attacked by troops and by batteries and were defeated with heavy loss."

It is reported in Chefoo that 12,000 Japanese troops were landed at Dove Bay last Wednesday morning and that they were met by the Russians, who engaged them in a hand-to-hand fight.
The reports say the Japanese were driven back. It is also reported that Japanese troops have been landed forty miles farther west.

The Tokyo correspondent of the London Times, cabling under date of February 14, says: "It is said the Japanese squadron has sailed Port Arthur."

The correspondent of the Daily Express at Peking, in a cablegram dated February 12, reports that Viceroy Alexieff is practically isolated, direct communication between Port Arthur and Vladivostok being suspended. He adds that the railroad behind Port Arthur has been blown up, and that 6,000 Japanese troops have landed near Dalny.

The London Daily Mail's Tokyo correspondent, under date of February 12, says that the Japanese warship Anaki has captured the German steamer Yokohama, which had a cargo, including dynamite, for Port Arthur.

The Nagasaki correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph expresses the conviction that Russia is quite unable to hold the Liao-Tung peninsula, and that Port Arthur is bound to fall by the effluxion of time, even without an assault.

The London Times' Wei-Hai-Wei correspondent says that on the morning of February 10 the Japanese occupied Ching-Hai-Wen, a Russian coaling station, close to Mampou.

The London Daily Telegraph's Shanghai correspondent, under date of February 12, says it is reported that the Japanese have bombarded Dalny and landed marines.

The Daily Mail, the Daily Telegraph and other papers publish dispatches from Tokyo, Nagasaki and Shanghai reporting the destruction of three Russian cruisers by mines or torpedoes in the Tsugaru Strait, off Aomori, Japan.

A statement that China will maintain neutrality is published in Peking. It is reported from Tientsin that all foreigners and civilians have been ordered to leave Port Arthur. It is also reported that the Siberian Railroad has been wrecked in six places, covering a distance of seventy miles.

The correspondent at Tientsin of the London Standard, cabling under date of February 11, says the British, American, French, German, and Italian ministers have jointly notified the Russian and Japanese authorities that no hostilities will be allowed on Chinese soil other than that of Manchuria.

A communication from Viceroy Alexieff just received in St. Petersburg confirms the report of the landing of 19,000 Japanese troops at Chemulpo. The viceroys adds that reports have been received of attempts to cut the telegraph wires along the Chinese Eastern Railway and also to destroy one of the abutments of the Sungari bridge. These attempts, he adds, were immediately detected and decisive measures taken to guard the railway. Communication by wireless telegraphy has been established with Chemulpo and Chefoo by ships stationed between these two places. All is quiet at Port Arthur. There is no news of the enemy's fleet and no confirmation of the reported appearance of Japanese iron-clads off Tatung-Kan, but the indications are that the enemy's scouts are off Inkan.
The mobilization of troops is being successfully carried out. Gen. Bazilevski, chief engineer, reports that the Port Arthur forts were not damaged during the bombardment.

A telegram from Kharkovsk announces that Gen. Lilevitch has been appointed to the supreme command of the Russian army in Manchuria. Grand Duke Cyril, a cousin of the Czar, and Grand Duke Boris, the Czar's uncle, are about to proceed to the seat of war.
Some of the newspapers of St. Petersburg are protesting vigorously against the censorship of war news. The Novoe Vremya says: "We are not children; let us hear the worst."

The admiralty stamps as nonsense the story that the Baltic fleet has been ordered to the far East, pointing out that the ships are laid up at Cronstadt, where they will be icebound for the winter.

CAPT. WISE GETS MAD.

A sensational clash between John S.
Wise, formerly of Virginia, now living in New York, and Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, was only averted by the utmost exertion on the part of members of the Lincoln Club of Grand Rapids, Mich., of which both men were guests at the banquet Friday night. As it is, there is still much soreness on the part of the former Virginian, who accuses the Iowa statesman of conduct unbecoming a gentleman.

Both were to speak at the banquet and during the afternoon, at Dolliver's request, Wise read to him his speech discussing the negro question. At night Wise delivered his speech, advocating taking away the franchise and reducing representation in Congress.

Dolliver was the next speaker, and for over an hour he replied to Wise arguing against Wise's proposition urging amendments to the constitution and the duty of the nation to elevate and educate the negro up to citizenship standards.

Mr. Wise was visibly surprised at the turn of Dolliver's speech, and it was easy to see his anger rising. Twice he interrupted the speaker: "What would have been your speech had you not read mine?"

He asked with some heat, and loud enough for the whole audience to hear.

Dolliver made a soothing reply, and then proceeded with his argument, while the toastmaster and others labored with Wise to calm his temper.

"I will give $500 if you will arrange to let me speak ten minutes when Dolliver is through," said Wise to the president of the club with such emphasis that many could hear. Fearing a scene, the request was not granted.

When the banquet closed and before the audience dispersed, Wise angrily asked Dolliver what he meant by taking such an advantage of him. Later they met in a cloak room of the Peninsula Club and had a warm debate. Mutual friends got them together later however.

Tendency of the Times.

The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Haggins, of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given a trial of a trial bottle of Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling.
I am now on the road to recovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by E. S.
Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Have You Indigestion?

If you have Indigestion Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure you. It has cured thousands.
It is curing people every day—every hour.

that digest and rebuild at the same time. Kodol does both. Kodol cures, strengthens and rebuilds. Sold by all druggists.

It Will Surprise You—Try It.

It is the medicine above all others for catarrh and is worth its weight in gold. Ely's
